

Central Florida's Largest Pottery Sale and Exhibition

Over 50 talented ceramic artists selling a variety of work at The Orlando Pottery Festival
Saturday April 25, 2026, 9am-5pm, Florida Army National Guard Armory, 2809 S Ferncreek Ave, Orlando, FL 32806

March 3, 2026 - The Orlando Pottery Festival is excited to announce its annual Spring Market. The Market will feature a diverse group of ceramic artists ranging from emerging artists to experienced potters, offering handmade pieces that appeal to every taste. Works will include styles that vary from traditional to contemporary, and whimsical to minimalistic. You'll find one of a kind pieces that you will treasure for years, alongside loads of creativity and friendly faces. A great spot to find gifts for Mother's Day, weddings, and birthdays.

The festival will offer work from over 50 ceramic artists, a concession stand, free admission, and free parking. Throughout the day, attendees can participate in a charity raffle, winning pottery from participating artists.

This is a family friendly, indoor event that aims to connect pottery enthusiasts with local Central Florida ceramic artists while helping to build community and an appreciation for the art of pottery. Come meet the artists and immerse yourself in their creativity.

To learn more, visit <https://theorlandopotteryfestival.org/> or follow us on Instagram and Facebook.

For media inquiries or additional information, please contact:

Amy Wilson, lead organizer

(954) 632-3965

theorlandopotteryfestival@yahoo.com

About the Orlando Pottery Festival

The Orlando Pottery Festival is a privately produced biannual event providing pottery enthusiasts and collectors the opportunity to browse and purchase work from local ceramic artists. The festival includes professional potters, hobbyists, and students, offering both decorative and functional work at varying price points. Complemented by concessions, free admission and free parking, the event is a great way to get out and meet your local artists.